公開大學動土興建 賽馬會健康護理學院

OUHK breaking new ground with Jockey Club Institute of Healthcare

公開大學正於何文田校園對面、常盛街的一幅地皮上建設新校園，並於 2017 年 12 月 15 日舉行動土典禮，標誌大學發展邁向新里程。

典禮由香港特區署理行政長官張建宗先生、香港賽馬會周永健副主席，以及公開大學李業廣副校監、校董會黃奕鑑主席、楊紹信副主席和黃玉山校長一同主禮。整項工程耗資八億五千萬港元，樓高 13 層的新校舍亦隨之正式啟動興建，日後將會成為大學的護理和健康相關課程及項目的基地。

張建宗先生致辭時讚揚本校為滿足社會對健康護理專才的需求而作出的努力和貢獻。黃奕鑑主席亦指出，本校在過去 28 年一直因應社會需要而發展：「面對人口老化帶來的挑戰和與日俱增的醫療服務需求，大學決定開展新的校園發展計劃，興建健康護理學院，除了培訓所需專才，亦推動香港成為健康城市。」

本校於 2016 年 12 月獲政府批出土地興建新大樓，總建築面積為 18,680 平方米。大學將在新設施內開辦一系列健康護理相關的課程，包括護理學（普通及精神健康）、幼兒教育（特殊教育）、運動管理學、精神科及心理學、物理治療及職業治療、營養學等。全新的學習設施預計每年可惠及 2,800 名學生。

抱持對健康生活的共同信念，香港賽馬會慈善信託基金慷慨捐贈二億八千一百萬元予本校，以資助有關的工程費用。周永健副主席表示：「香港賽馬會一直十分重視本港的教育發展，而健康護理又是社會重要的一環，與公開大學的理念一致。」為答謝基金的慷慨捐助，新大樓命名為「香港公開大學賽馬會健康護理學院」，同日並舉行了命名儀式。

黃玉山校長向基金及政府致以由衷的感謝，並表示新校舍將大大提升本校的教學環境，於 2020 年落成時，每名學生可享用的建築面積將由七平方米增至十平方米。他補充：「大樓將採用先進的設計，對於教學及豐富的校園生活兩者的需求，會盡量取得平衡。除了設備完善的課室和專業實驗室外，大樓的主要設施還包括學習研修專區、康體設施、互動綠化空間、學習共用空間和圓形露天劇場。學生可以在新穎的環境下學習和交流。」

The OUHK marked another major development milestone on 15 December 2017 when it broke ground at the new Sheung Shing Street campus just opposite the main campus in Ho Man Tin.

Acting Chief Executive of the Hong Kong SAR Mr Matthew Cheung Kin-chung and Deputy Chairman of The Hong Kong Jockey Club Mr Anthony W K Chow, joined by the OUHK Pro-Chancellor Dr Charles Lee Yeh-kwong, Council Chairman Mr Michael Wong Yick-kam, Deputy Chairman Mr Silas Yang Siu-shun and President Prof. Yuk-Shan Wong, officiated at the groundbreaking ceremony. The event officially marked the start of construction of the HK$850 million, 13-storey building which will bring nursing and health-related programmes together under one roof at the University.

Addressing the ceremony, Mr Matthew Cheung commended the OUHK for its contributions and efforts to meet society's demand for nursing and healthcare professionals. Mr Michael Wong echoed that the University's growth and development over the past 28 years has always been driven by community demand for its services. He added, 'In view of the ageing population and the rising need for healthcare services in the community, the University has decided to embark on a new campus development project to house the new Institute of Healthcare. In addition to catering for future manpower demand, the new initiative will also promote Hong Kong as a healthy city.'

Located on a site granted by the Government in December 2016, the new building will have a total gross floor area of 18,680 square meters. It will be home to a suite of healthcare-related programmes, including Nursing (General and Mental Healthcare), Early Childhood Education (Special Educational Needs), Sports Management, Mental Health and Psychology, Physiotherapy and Occupational Therapy, Nutrition and Dietetics and more. It is expected that about 2,800 students will benefit from this new learning facility every year.

Sharing the OUHK's belief in healthy living, The Hong Kong Jockey Club Charities Trust has kindly donated HK$281 million in support of the construction project. Mr Anthony Chow said, 'Education has long been a major focus for the Club, while healthcare is an important pillar of society, a common cause strongly shared by both the Club and the University.' In recognition of the Trust's generous contribution, the new building is to be named the OUHK Jockey Club Institute of Healthcare and a naming ceremony was held on the same occasion.

Prof. Yuk-Shan Wong expressed his heartfelt thanks to the Trust and the Government for the considerable gift and support, and outlined the benefits for students. To be completed in 2020, the new facility will significantly improve the learning and teaching environment of the University, bringing the built space for each OUHK student from 7 to 10 square meters. 'The new Institute will feature state-of-the-art design which will strike a balance between teaching needs and a vibrant campus life. In addition to well-equipped classrooms and professional labs, key facilities will also include learning and study hubs, recreational and sports facilities, interactive green areas, innovative learning commons and amphitheatres. Students will enjoy active learning and exchange in a cutting-edge setting,' he explained.

School of Nursing and Health Studies established

獲大學校董會決議通過，本校護理及健康學院於 1 月 22 日正式成立，成為大學架構內第五所教學學院。經遴選後，李國麟教授於 2 月 14 日獲任命為學院院長。

As approved by the University's Council, a new School of Nursing and Health Studies was established on 22 January, becoming the fifth School within the OUHK's academic structure. After a selection exercise, Prof. Joseph Lee was appointed Dean of the School with effect from 14 February.

護理學科迅速擴展

早於 1994 年 10 月，公開大學科技學院推出首個護理學榮譽學士課程，自此本校一直提供優質護士培訓課程。經過二十年急速發展，護理課程學生人數一直增加，當時預計隨著賽馬會校園落成和啟用，入學人數將持續上升。為了令運作更暢順、有效，大學在 2013 年 4 月於科技學院轄下成立護理及健康學部，並委任李國麟教授為學部主任。

在過去五年，學部不論在課程、學生人數、學費收入及業內聲譽等各方面均發展迅速。目前，本校護理學畢業生的人數為全港之冠，大學管理層認為將學部提升為學院，將有助提高運作效率，並會促進大學現正籌備多項新課程的發展。

李教授表示：「配合學院的成立，以及公開大學賽馬會健康護理學院預計於 2020 年落成，更多元化的護理課程將在未來數年推出，涵蓋脊醫、營養學、物理治療、職業治療、復康治療、紓緩護理及青少年健康等範疇。」另一方面，學院亦將繼續利用先進科技提升教學質素。李教授續稱：「我們一直利用虛擬實境科技講解解剖學、生理學、與病者溝通技巧及護理介入訓練等。同事們亦會加強『電子書包』在教學上的應用，例如使用各種移動應用程式於臨床評估和其他學習活動等。」

Rapid development of the nursing discipline

Back in October 1994, the OUHK's School of Science and Technology launched its first Bachelor of Nursing (Honours) programme, and the University has since then demonstrated its strength in delivering high-quality nursing education. Throughout two strong decades of development, enrolment of nursing programmes kept increasing and would continue to do so with the completion of the Jockey Club Campus. Therefore, to provide more efficient and effective operation, the Division of Nursing and Health Studies was formed within the School of Science and Technology in April 2013, and Prof. Joseph Lee was appointed as Head of the Division.

Five years on, the Division has grown in leaps and bounds in terms of programmes, students, revenue and reputation. To date, the University has produced the largest number of nursing graduates in Hong Kong, and the transformation of the Division into a School will help to streamline existing operations and to facilitate the development of programmes in the pipeline.

More programmes to meet society's needs

In its early years, the OUHK began offering distance learning nursing programmes to provide registered and enrolled nurses with ongoing learning opportunities. In response to the significant demand for nurses in society, the University took a further step and started offering full-time programmes in 2005, enabling school leavers to enter the field. Currently the School offers a range of nursing and health studies programmes in both distance learning and face-to-face modes at diploma, higher diploma, degree, honours degree and postgraduate level.

Prof. Lee says, 'In line with the establishment of the School and the anticipated completion of the new OUHK Jockey Club Institute of Healthcare in 2020, more diversified nursing and health programmes will be launched in the next few years, covering specialisms such as chiropractic, dietetics, physiotherapy, occupational therapy, rehabilitation sciences, palliative care, adolescent health and more.' Furthermore, the School will continue to improve teaching quality by using advanced technology. 'We have been strengthening teaching and learning with virtual reality in such areas as anatomy and physiology, communication skills, and patient care intervention training,' he adds. 'Faculty members will also increasingly apply the "electronic school bag" in healthcare education through using various mobile apps in clinical assessment and other learning activities.'

第二十六屆畢業典禮 TWENTY-SIXTH CONGREGATION

本校第 26 屆畢業典禮於 2017 年 12 月 12 至 14 日一連舉行三天，頒授逾 7,000 個不同程度的學術資格。其中超過一半畢業生獲頒學士學位，另有近千人完成深造課程，歷年畢業生總人數累計逾 11 萬人。行政長官暨本校校監林鄭月娥於 12 月 12 日蒞臨主禮，頒授榮譽博士學位予四位傑出人士，包括梁愛詩博士、陳智思博士、方正博士及李焯芬教授。

黃玉山校長於典禮上致辭時恭賀畢業生，讚揚他們孜孜不倦，辛勤學習，終於學有所成並取得學位，對此深感欣慰。同時，黃校長藉此機會就培育本地科技人才提出建議：他鼓勵學生多學習科學中的「精神價值」，培養求知求真的理性精神及態度，而學校亦應開展更多科普活動，提升學生對科學的興趣。另外，他建議加強高中理科課程，而大學亦應在理工科課程內增添基礎性的科學課程，彌補高中在這方面的不足，期望通過多方面合作，進一步改善及提升科學教育。

12 月份的校園瀰漫着一片歡欣氣氛。公共事務部校友事務組精心設計了多項畢業佈置及拍照小道具，又於 12 月 17 日舉辦拍攝大合照活動。數百位畢業生在攝氏 12 度的寒冷天氣下回到校園，與校長、副校長、各學院院長及老師合照留念，場面溫馨熱鬧。另外，學生事務處亦於典禮期間在校園裝設畢業佈置，並貼心安排免費穿梭巴士往返校園及典禮場地，攜手為畢業生締造更多難忘時刻。

The Open University of Hong Kong held its 26th Congregation on 12–14 December 2017, celebrating the accomplishments of more than 7,000 graduates, over 50 per cent of whom had completed undergraduate programmes, and close to 1,000 receiving postgraduate awards. To date, the total number of OUHK graduates has surpassed 110,000.

Moreover, on 12 December, the Chief Executive of the HKSAR and Chancellor of the University Mrs Carrie Lam Cheng Yuet-ngor conferred honorary doctoral degrees on four distinguished personages — Dr the Honourable Elsie Leung Oi-sie, Dr the Honourable Bernard Charnwutt Chan, Dr Eddy Fong Ching and Prof. Lee Chack-fan.

Addressing the ceremony, President Prof. Yuk-Shan Wong congratulated the graduates and applauded their hard work and perseverance throughout their studies. He also shared his views on science education and put forward a few proposals on bolstering science and technology talent. He emphasized the importance of the spiritual value of science for students, in addition to its practical value. On the part of schools, he suggested organizing more popular science activities to nurture students' interest, and strengthening science subjects in the senior secondary curriculum while adding fundamental courses to the university curriculum for students studying science and engineering.

In December, the Alumni Affairs Office of the Public Affairs Unit worked in tandem with the Student Affairs Office to create a celebratory atmosphere on campus for the new graduates. A variety of decorations and props were produced, while a group photo session for graduates were arranged with the President, Vice Presidents, Deans of Schools and academic staff on 17 December. Hundreds of graduates came to the campus to join this photo-taking event despite the chilly temperature of 12 degrees. During the Congregation, a shuttle bus service was arranged between the campus and the ceremony venue.

The interns may rotate among departments to learn different skills, and those with outstanding performance will be offered junior management positions by the hotels upon graduation. Workshops and consultation sessions on career prospects and employer expectations will be offered prior to the internships. Ultimately, students will be required to conduct a project.

退休警司眼中的「大館」

Tai Kuen in the eyes of veteran police officer

「大館」泛指前中區警署、中央裁判司署和域多利監獄建築群，目前正進行活化工程。退休警司何明新先生曾服務大館至少八個部門，並負責警署的維修工作，對其歷史瞭如指掌。今年1月23日，他在校與香港大學犯罪學中心及東亞治安與警政研究論壇合辦的講座上，闡釋這一站式司法系統形成的歷史。

'Tai Kuen', literally 'Big Station', refers to the cluster of buildings comprising the former Central Police Station, Central Magistracy and Victoria Prison, which is currently under revitalization. 現代劇場座談會系列

Modern theatre seminar series

過去數月，數碼文化與人文學科研究所舉辦了一系列有關戲劇的座談會。傑出教授 Julie Holledge 先於去年 11 月分析演員嶄新演繹易卜生角色的技巧。這是她第四次到訪本校。除了在座談會及學術會議演講外，她亦與本校教學人員緊密合作，參與研究討論，並表示十分享受過程：「感謝他們擴闊了我對粵劇的認識，為我的全球表演文化趨勢研究，提供了新視角。」本年 1 月和 2 月，兩位羅馬尼亞學者——盧西恩布拉加錫比烏大學 Ion Tomus 教授和國立戲劇影視大學 Octavian Saiu 教授——分別發表對錫比烏國際戲劇藝術節，以及劇作家貝克特、尤奧斯高和歐洲戲劇現代主義的見解。

In the past few months, the Research Institute for Digital Culture and Humanities (RIDCH) has held a number of theatre-related seminars. Last November, Distinguished Professor Julie Holledge analysed how actors developed new techniques of embodiment in performing Ibsen's characters. This was her fourth visit to the University. In addition to speaking at seminars and conferences, she worked closely with OUHK staff on their research during her stay. She found her discussions at OUHK fruitful and enjoyable: 'I am grateful to those staff members who expanded my understanding of Cantonese opera; they helped me to add a new dimension to my research on the global flows of performance culture.' Furthermore, in January and February 2018, two Romanian scholars, Prof. Ion Tomus from Lucian Blaga University of Sibiu and Prof. Octavian Saiu from the National University of Theatre and Film, gave talks on the Sibiu International Theatre Festival, playwrights Beckett and Ionesco, and European theatrical modernism.

Like teacher, like student

B&A staff help students unleash potential

大學教育除了傳授知識外，還培育學生全面成長，並幫助他們做好職場準備，是年輕學子踏足社會的一道橋樑。有見及此，本校李兆基商業管理學院於 2015 年 4 月成立「學生服務團隊」，並通過其下設立的五個小隊，就比賽、遊學團、就業與實習、「A-Team」精英學生培訓，以及獎學金與獎項範疇給與學生支援。為鼓勵學生從比賽中學習，學院不但要求每位「A-Team」學生每年最少參加一項比賽，更對所有學生一視同仁，安排老師協助所有參賽同學備戰。

In addition to imparting knowledge, a good university education connects students to the real world by supporting their personal growth and preparing them for the job market. For this reason, the Lee Shau Kee School of Business and Administration formed the Student Services Team in April 2015, supporting students across five divisions: competitions, study tours, careers and internships, 'A-Team' elite student training, and scholarships and awards. While 'A-Team' students are required to take part in at least one competition per year, the School encourages all students to learn through competition participation, and arranges for teaching staff to coach all entrants indiscriminately.

Dedicated teachers-turned-coaches

屬比賽小隊的「大學校際區域比賽教練隊」成員蕭秀珠博士、陳興泰博士及鄧錦書老師，早前在「公開大學教職禮讚」上獲頒「校長卓越成就獎」。負責協調學院學生服務團隊的蕭博士表示，教學人員指導學生全屬自願性質。他們分工合作，每年指導學生參加專業團體舉辦的大賽約七、八個，小型比賽為數更多。是次獲嘉許的團隊，去年帶領兩名學生奪得國際會計師公會「企業可持續發展及風險管理案例分析比賽」亞軍。「這次比賽的冠軍和季軍分別由香港科技大學和香港中文大學隊伍奪得。兩位同學令我們深感自豪。」幾位老師十分感謝區啟明院長一直以來鼎力支持，並給予學生機會自由發揮。

訓練學生參賽是個教學相長的過程。去年是本校第二次挑戰該賽事。陳博士回憶，首年參賽時，由於企業可持續發展並非三位老師的研究專長，因此他們先要蒐集資料，甚至造訪業界，既教也學。「那次同學在簡報設計上花了很大心思，可惜程式出錯，得臨場變陣，最終也獲得傑出隊伍獎，成績算是不俗。」翌年三人汲取教訓，建議改變匯報模式，剛巧其中一位同學有戲劇經驗，他們於是發揮創意，提議同學以角色扮演方式，超越時空落腳未來，並回溯公司的發展軌跡。

陳博士分享培訓學生的心得：「要幫助同學獲勝，一定不得把意見強加他們身上！」老師與學生組成團隊，商討協作，又鼓勵學生之間的傳承，邀請曾參與同類比賽的學兄學姊傳授經驗，具美術天分的同學就投影片提供意見，還找來碩士班學生從觀眾角度給予建議。作為教練，他們更擔起輔導員的角色。賽前其中一位同學因感壓力太大而落淚，蕭博士「立時與她傾談，疏導情緒；越過這關口之後，她在台上作了她最精彩的一次表演。」

最終兩位得獎學生獲獎勵到國際顧問公司實習，後更因表現優異而獲聘任兼職。鄧老師說：「看着同學從起初不太起眼，到迸發潛能，開花結果，我很替他們開心。」老師們樂於擔任伯樂，沒有着眼於學生顯而易見的能力，卻把重點放在他們的可塑性上。如今成功發掘可造之材，實感欣慰。

Under the competitions division, Inter-University Regional Competition Coaching Team members Dr Irene Siaw Siw-chu, Dr Jimmy Chan Hing-tai and Ms Lana Tang Kam-shu were honoured with the President's Award for Distinguished Achievement at the University's most recent Award Presentation Ceremony. Dr Siaw, who is also the School's Student Services Coordinator, explains that members of the teaching staff take turns to train students for seven to eight major competitions organized by professional bodies every year, and many more minor ones, all on a voluntary basis. Last year, the awarded team guided a pair of students through the Association of International Accountants Business Sustainability and Risk Management Case Analysis Competition to a first runner-up finish. 'The first and third places of the competition went to teams from the Hong Kong University of Science and Technology and the Chinese University of Hong Kong respectively. We're so proud of our students,' they say. The team are very grateful for the autonomy given by Dean Prof. Alan Au, as well as his unstinting support, which created the right conditions for the students to achieve.

It was a learning process for both the teachers and the students. 'It was the University's second attempt at this competition. Business sustainability isn't our field of expertise, so in the first year, we resorted to research. We went as far as to consult industry players,' explains Dr Chan. In that first trial, their protégés won the Outstanding Team Award but did not make it into the top three, affected by a crash of the specialist software they had used to design their presentation slides. That lesson learnt, the coaching team advised subsequent contestants to change the presentation approach. As one of the students had experience with drama, they suggested doing a role-play and came up with a futuristic plot in which the characters took stock of the company's history.

'To help students win,' Dr Chan adds, 'we must not impose our ideas on them.' Instead, teachers and students put their heads together and work out the best solutions as a team. And in the ethos of passing on experience, senior-year students who have participated in similar competitions are invited to talk to juniors, artistically gifted students to comment on the presentation slides, and master's students to give feedback as an audience. As coaches, the team also provide counselling to ensure that their protégés are psychologically prepared. Dr Siaw recounts how one of the runner-up students broke into tears from stress as the competition drew close: 'We had a long chat to sort things out. Once she had gathered herself, she gave her best performance ever.'

The prize included internships at international consulting firms, and the two winners performed so well that they were eventually offered part-time positions. 'I'm so happy to see students who might not have initially stood out blossom and grow,' says Ms Tang. Rather than spotting obvious gifts, the talent scouts set their eyes on students' potential. It gives them great joy to unearth hidden talents.

Single-hearted student team crowned champions

事隔半年多，再有四位分別來自會計學、企業管治、環球商業及市場學課程的同學，在商學院眾老師的指引下，於香港會計師公會舉辦的「專業資格課程個案分析比賽」擊敗一眾來自獲資助大學及自資院校的队伍，勇奪冠軍，在成長路上邁出亮麗的一步。

參加者須為玩具公司獻策，渡過轉型難關。隊長文偉安認為財務分析部分最具挑戰性：「我們就讀二年級，雖已掌握基本會計知識，但對財務結構的細節仍未有太深的認識。」幸得眾老師指導，團隊學會精簡表述數據，再鑽研相關的商業報告，並以各自的本科專長互補，書面報告終於大功告成。

進入決賽階段，更是分秒必爭。冼佩琪縷述：「匯報時間只有十分鐘，好不容易才篩選好材料。初稿完成後還是發現篇幅太長，但比賽已迫近眉睫，老師建議以角色扮演模式簡化講稿。」此時距離出賽日僅餘五天，他們只得夜以繼日，邊修訂講稿，邊排練。馮樂晴道：「我們深知，萬一接不上隊友的台詞，便會把匯報搞糟。」

比賽前夕，他們熬夜苦練至凌晨；出賽當天仍把握機會盡最後努力。雖然他們自稱在台上有點怯場，但評判卻絲毫未察；連在台下觀戰的蕭秀珠博士也感眼前一亮：「一晚之隔，想不到他們竟能丟掉提示卡，揮灑自如！」王嘉汶更獲頒最佳演說獎，獲評判稱許信心十足。「其實緊張得很，但我投入角色，相信自己就是所扮演的經理，若不表現出信心，便會失業。還有我在比賽前對着鏡子排練。」

備戰期間先後有六位任教不同科目的老師提供意見，除蕭博士外和陳興泰博士，還有 Jeevika Goyal 老師、羅敬偉博士、李志強博士和徐世傑老師。團隊由衷感謝眾老師的幫忙。樂晴說：「最後幾天，老師在深夜仍接聽我們的電話！」老師們耗費心力貼身指導，只因深信參賽過程對學生的識見、前途皆有裨益。同學不負所望，深諳合作的要義：「意見不同時彼此尊重和遷就，還有保持一點幽默感，緩和氣氛。這種技巧在職場及處世上皆用得着。」是次的獎品之一是在四大會計師事務所的實習機會，同學滿有憧憬：「參賽可說是事業發展的起步點。」

A half-year later, another student team achieved a remarkable milestone on their personal development journey. Under the tutelage of a larger coaching team, four students from the accounting, corporate governance, global business and marketing streams bagged the championship spot at the Hong Kong Institute of Certificate Public Accountants Qualification Programme Case Analysis Competition, beating other teams from UGC-funded universities and self-financing institutions.

Competitors were asked to provide solutions for a toy retailer in the face of economic transitions. Team leader Manuel Reynier Salinas found the financial analysis most challenging. 'We're still in Year 2. We knew the accounting basics, but were unfamiliar with the details of the financial structure.' Thanks to their teachers' advice, they managed to present the figures in the simplest way. The rest of the written report was completed to a high standard based on extensive research on related business reports and the team's own complementary knowledge.

The final round was a race against time. 'It was hard to select what to include in the ten-minute presentation,' Abigail Hilario Casino recalls. 'Our first draft turned out to be far too long and we were running out of time. Our teachers suggested cutting it down into a role-play framework.' By then, it was only five days from contest day. Fung Lok-ching says, 'We knew that if we missed our partners' lines, the whole thing could fall apart.' They worked around the clock, rehearsing and editing the script simultaneously, up until the small hours of the final night.

On the day, they took advantage of every minute available to perfect their performance. 'When it was finally the students' turn, they took me completely by surprise,' says Dr Siaw, who was in the audience. 'Overnight, they had got rid of all the cue cards, and they acted with such ease!' In front of the judges, the contestants mastered their nerves, and Meesri Suthinan was named Best Presenter for her confident performance. 'I was actually very nervous, but I believed in the character I was given and put myself in her shoes. I was a manager and I had to be confident or I would lose my job. I also practised in front of the mirror.'

The winners are indebted to six teachers from various disciplines: in addition to Dr Siaw and Dr Jimmy Chan, Ms Jeevika Goyal, Dr Justin Law, Dr Kevin Li and Mr Christopher Tsui advised the contestants. 'We're really grateful for their support. In the final few days, they picked up our calls past midnight!' exclaims Lok-ching. The teachers go to great lengths because they believe participating in competitions broadens students' horizons. And the winning team do not disappoint, demonstrating sophisticated interpersonal skills essential in the workplace and in day-to-day communication: 'When there were differences we would respect each other and try to accommodate. We would also joke around to maintain a fun environment,' they explain. Meanwhile, they await their internships at Big Four accounting firms — a prize of the championship — with great anticipation: 'We see this as the first step on our career path.'

人文社會科學院新任院長 鄺志良教授果敢破傳統

Prof. Charles Kwong, new Dean of School of Arts & Social Sciences Leading the School beyond tradition

加入公開大學大家庭逾廿載的鄺志良教授，於今年1月獲委任為人文社會科學院院長，繁重的工作隨即接踵而至，但他卻有條不紊地應對，滿溢着熱忱。他上任後首項重點工作，是把學院課程的四大範疇融合為三：即社會科學、創意藝術，以及人文、語言和翻譯。「把相近的學科歸入同一範疇能起協同效應，既可促進教學，亦幫助學生掌握更全面的知識。」

談到來年大計，鄺教授說主要有三方面。首先，是開辦需求殷切的課程，以配合社會的發展；同時亦會開辦力圖創新、以前瞻角度開發的新課程，如「高齡社會與服務研究」、「全球與中國研究」等。他笑言仍然懷抱年輕時果敢進取的拓荒精神，「是有相當壓力，但我會冒險嘗試，希望闖出開辦課程的新方向。」其次，是發掘更多機會讓學生參與實習、海外交流和服務，使他們擴闊視野和加深學習體驗，亦會鼓勵和協助他們多參與比賽，增強自信。最後，是推動老師參與研究：「藉研究創造新知識，來提升教學水平，教研相長，二者不可分開。」

行政工作雖忙，鄺教授仍然以身作則，繼發表其帶領的「香港實行老年退休金計劃可行性研究（僱員角度）」報告後，今年會延續「僱主角度」部分：「雖較上一次難度更高，但我熱衷研究，所以會分配好時間，並與年輕同事合作。」

鄺教授喜愛接觸年輕人：「他們點子多，極具創意。」像修讀創意藝術的同學，在老師團隊盡心盡力的指導下，在近年的比賽中屢創佳績。因此，他在讚賞同學的傑出表現之餘，亦感激同事們無私的付出。

自1990年春季加入本校任兼職導師至今，一直見證着大學茁壯成長。憧憬未來的發展，鄺教授仍是把學生的福祉放在首位：「希望繼續擴充校舍、加添設施，給學生更佳的學習環境，並爭取更到位的學習資助。」

Prof. Charles Kwong Che-leung, who has been a member of the OUHK family for more than two decades, was appointed Dean of the School of Arts and Social Sciences in January this year. The promotion comes with a heavy workload, but Prof. Kwong's approach to work is both systematic and full of passion. His first major undertaking as Dean is to integrate the four subject areas of the School's programmes into three, i.e. social sciences, creative arts, and humanities, language and translation. 'Bringing together similar disciplines creates synergies and enhances teaching, while helping students to grasp knowledge more comprehensively,' he says.

希望繼續擴充校舍、加添設施，給學生更佳的學習環境，並爭取更到位的學習資助。

I hope the campus will continue to expand, with more facilities and a better learning environment for students. We also need to strive for more down-to-earth funding for them.

In his agenda for the year, Prof. Kwong is focusing on three areas. Firstly, the School will gear its existing programmes towards nurturing talent to meet the changing needs of our society, whilst launching some forward-looking and innovative new ones, such as 'Ageing Society and Services Studies' and 'Global and China Studies'. Still embracing the pioneering spirit and boldness of his youth, he cheerfully concedes that these bold moves come with some pressure. 'But I will endeavour to try,' he says, 'and hopefully we can identify more new directions for learning.' Secondly, the School will explore more opportunities for student internships as well as overseas exchanges and services, to broaden their horizons and enrich their study experience. Greater support for student competition entries will also be provided to build up students' self-confidence. Lastly, the School will aim to motivate more academic staff to engage in research. 'Research informs teaching. It is a mutually beneficial process, and the two cannot be separated,' he emphasizes.

In spite of his heavy administrative workload, Prof. Kwong seeks to lead by example. Following the recent 'Feasibility Study of Old Age Pension Scheme in Hong Kong: An Employee's Perspective' which he spearheaded, Prof. Kwong will pursue this research topic with 'An Employer's Perspective' this year. 'This is going to be more difficult than the last study, but I do love research,' he says. 'So I will allocate time for it and also work together with young colleagues.'

Prof. Kwong likes to spend time with young people. 'They have all sorts of new ideas, which are often quite innovative,' he says. He mentions the school's creative arts students, and his delight at their recent award-winning performances in several competitions. The students excelled under the guidance of the devoted teaching team, and Prof. Kwong appreciates his colleagues' dedication.

Since joining the OUHK in spring 1990 as a part-time tutor, Prof. Kwong has witnessed the robust growth and development of the University. Looking to the future, he still considers the well-being of students as his top priority. 'I hope the campus will continue to expand, with more facilities and a better learning environment for students,' he says. 'We also need to strive for more down-to-earth funding for them.'

舒女士一直關注母校的發展，自 2005 年起，便積極支持大學不同項目及計劃，包括校園建設、學生資助和支援服務，以及學術研究和出版。黃玉山校長讚揚舒女士對母校的那份關愛一直推動大學向前邁進，幫助提升教學質素之餘，亦為學弟妹們建構更理想的學習環境。

OUHK Honorary Fellow and alumna Miss Katie Shu Sui-pui has made another generous donation of HK$1 million in support of the new OUHK Jockey Club Institute of Healthcare. In recognition of her long-standing and significant contributions over the years, a tutorial room at the University's Jockey Club Campus has been named the 'Katie Shu Sui Pui Charitable Trust Hall'.

Miss Shu is a dedicated patron of the OUHK. Since 2005, she has been supporting her alma mater in various ways including campus development, student financial assistance and support, and research and publications. President Prof. Yuk-Shan Wong commended her for her ongoing generosity and commitment which has helped propel the University forwards by enhancing education quality and the learning environment for her schoolmates.

Alumna Dr Kelly Chu
keeps up with the times,
from business to art

朱吳妮娜博士於 1995 年入讀本校，十年內先後取得工商管理碩士及應用電腦學學士。她往後仍堅持自我增值，在營商及藝術創作皆有所成。她興奮地表示：「2017 是我收穫豐富的一年。」

早前她獲《香港商報》頒發「2017 傑出商界女領袖」榮譽，肯定她從商多年的成就。三十年來她與丈夫並肩打拼，跋涉各地拓展業務，更覷準內地推動潔淨能源的商機，開展木薯生意，並在 2008 年風高浪急的金融風暴中抓緊機會，乘勢而起，發展成業界龍頭，繼而上市。其間，她為了更有系統地管理業務而報讀本校：「商業管理課程非常實用，讓我認識很多商業理論，有助營運生意。」

這些年來她亦涉足藝文領域，從事藝術創作十年，尤其醉心歌曲創作，並曾出版兩張唱片：「以往的作品從『小我』出發，寫的都是個人經歷和感受，現時轉向創作國族情懷的歌曲。」她以回歸二十年為題寫下的《香港頌》，曾在中港多個大型活動中演出，迴響熱烈：「靈感來自我在香港生活多年的感受，頌讚港人迎難而上，攜手建設家園的堅毅意志。」

“我向來抱着兩個宗旨處世：既要與時並進，更要與勢並進。將來的機遇難料，或會再創另一番事業。

I've always lived my life on two principles: keep up with the times, as well as the trends. No one knows what the future holds, and there may well be another career path for me.”

12 歲從內地移居香港，生活艱困，練就她的刻苦個性。住板間房，剪線頭幫補家計，甚至少少年紀便開始半工讀，但都未能消磨她的意志，相信一切須憑努力爭取。在本校進修時，她要同時兼顧家庭及事業，壓力沉重，經常胃抽筋，「那十年實在不易熬，流過不少淚水。」回憶仍啖到甘苦，但她從不言退，堅持終身學習，其後更取得博士學位。

她曾自稱「師奶博士」，現在則是「半途出家的藝術人」。早前她參加「編劇大師接班人」課程，並晉身最後十強，獲專業編劇個別指導，寫下電影劇本，後被改編成舞台劇《血紅玫》。她無意畫地固守，刻下正投入編劇深造班，更有機會為電影人編寫劇本。「我向來抱着兩個宗旨處世：既要與時並進，更要與勢並進。將來的機遇難料，或會再創另一番事業。」

Dr Kelly Chu enrolled at the OUHK in 1995, and within the space of a decade, she obtained first an MBA and then a Bachelor of Computing. Her approach to life is one of continual self-enhancement, an attitude which has led to achievements in both her business and creative endeavours. '2017 was a fruitful year for me,' she says excitedly.

In fact, in 2017 Dr Chu received one of the Hong Kong Commercial Daily Outstanding Business Women Awards, marking her years of success in the field. Over the last three decades, she has worked side by side with her husband and travelled to many places to expand their businesses. They astutely foresaw the rising importance of clean energy in the mainland and started trading in cassava to seize the business opportunity. Having ridden out the 2008 financial tsunami, their company became an industry leader and went public. Along the way, Dr Chu joined the OUHK as a student to learn how to manage her businesses more systematically. 'The business management courses are very practical. I became acquainted with many theories which have been useful in running my businesses,' she explains.

Through the years, she has also become involved in art and culture. She has been writing songs for ten years and has made two albums. On her songs' themes, she says: 'In the past, my songs were based on my personal experiences and feelings, but recently I've started composing songs with national sentiments.' Notably, she wrote Ode to Hong Kong to celebrate the 20th Anniversary of Hong Kong's return to China. The song has been performed at many large-scale events in Hong Kong and the mainland, to positive audience responses. 'It was inspired by my feelings as a long-term resident of Hong Kong. I commend Hong Kong people for their indefatigable spirit against all odds and collective will in building their homeland together,' she continues.

Dr Chu came to Hong Kong from the mainland at the age of 12. Her situation of poverty at the time forged her hardworking ethos. She lived in a cubicle room, did sewing to earn extra income for her family and started working part-time whilst still at school. Despite these difficulties, she remained determined. Later, during her studies at the OUHK, she had to look after her family and businesses at the same time. The enormous pressure she was under affected her physical health. 'Those ten years were far from easy and I often cried,' she recalls. However, retiring was never on the agenda, and she went on to obtain a doctoral degree.

Dr Chu once referred to herself a 'PhD housewife', and now prefers 'half-trained artist'. In another study venture, she registered on a screenwriting course and was selected as one of its top ten students. This led to coaching by veteran screenwriters and a successful screenplay, which was later adapted into the stage drama Blood Red Rose. Never one to stay in her comfort zone, she has already enrolled on an advanced screenwriting course, hoping to write for film. 'I've always lived my life on two principles: keep up with the times, as well as the trends,' she emphasizes. 'No one knows what the future holds, and there may well be another career path for me.'

被問及在港的難忘經歷時，Mr.Wally 就想起財物被偷的不愉快事件：「現在我倒是要感激那小偷！那次事件讓我深深感受到香港人樂於助人的特質，我亦因此獲更多市民認識。」事件發生後，他決意再度來港，以音樂答謝香港人的熱心幫助。他說：「每次看見觀眾一張張笑臉，我感到非常滿足。」

More than 100 students, alumni and staff members, as well as members of the public enjoyed a cozy 'Alumni Café x Mr. Wally' evening on 15 November 2017. The musical event featured popular Japanese street performer Mr. Wally, with OUHK alumna and RTHK DJ Ms Lo Sze-pui, a BBA in Management graduate, serving as the MC.

In addition to singing many well-known Japanese folk songs and his original compositions, Mr. Wally shared his journey of pursuing his dreams with the audience. 'When I was small, I always wanted to travel the world with music. Not only can music bring relaxation; it is also a universal language that connects people and brings them together,' Mr. Wally said.

When asked about his most memorable experience during his stay in Hong Kong, Mr. Wally recalled the unfortunate incident of having his money and belongings stolen. 'To a certain extent, I am grateful that it happened as it brought me so much attention by local people, and I could feel how kind and helpful Hong Kongers were,' he added, and decided to come back to Hong Kong to express his gratitude with music. 'I feel so contented seeing the happy faces of the audience.'
