Green Tomato – Job Vacancies

1. Developer (Backend)

You will do the following in this job:

- Build Cloud-based and on-premise solutions using varied languages and tools
- Write well designed, testable, and efficient code
- Implementation of security and data protection
- Optimize application for maximum speed and scalability
- System Integration with external application
- Implementation of a robust set of web services and RESTful APIs to power the web application
- Design and develop testing methodologies and tools in accordance with the established standards
- Conduct Unit Testing and Regression Testing ensuring the overall quality of applications
- Participate in functional and non-functional testing
- Ensure that the designs are in compliance with specifications
- Analyze and resolve technical and application issues
- Prepare and produce releases of software components
- Support the user requirement collection process, development of user stories and estimate efforts
- Transform Business Requirements into Logical Design, and Logical Design into Physical Design Implementation
- Support continuous improvement by researching and evaluating a variety of software products, investigating alternative technologies, and presenting these for architectural review
- Assess opportunities for application and process improvement and prepare documentation of rationale to share with team members and other affected parties
- Follow ad hoc task and assignment upon request

We are looking for you if:

- You are proficiency in Java 8+ and Declarative/Functional Programming
- You are experienced in Spring Framework, Hibernate or OGM Tools
- You are experienced in SQL, MSSQL or MySQL Server
- Experience in Web, JS, Node.js, Kotlin, Golang would be advantage
- Experience in MQ, Document / Graph DB would be advantage
- Experience in Public/Private Cloud, Containerization and Scalable Architecture would be advantage
- Experience in Agile, DevOps and Continuous Integration would be advantage
- You are a team player, detailed oriented, self-motivated and good in time management
- Interest and passion in new technology
- 1 year or above relevant experience would be preferred

What we offer:

- 5-day working week
- Happy and harmonious working environment
- Competitive remuneration
- Medical Allowance
- Birthday Leave
- Valuable working experience

- Internal training support
- Year-end Performance Bonus

We offer attractive remuneration packages and excellent career development opportunities to the right candidate.

Final and Most Important Requirement
"Enjoy What You Do!!"

Candidates not contacted within 4 weeks may consider their application for this role unsuccessful. Unless advised otherwise, unsuccessful candidates will be kept on file for future job opportunities. Personal data collected will be used for recruitment related purposes only and all personal data of applicants will be kept in strict accordance to the Personal Data Privacy Ordinance.

2. Developer (Android)

Developer is responsible for developing the most appropriate and implement Technology solutions with software development in line with the solution design, to meet customer needs, ensuring continuous improvement.

This role will carry out some or all of the following activities:
- Engineer software to fulfil functional and non-functional requirements as a key objective.
- Work within a feature team to engineer software, scripts and tools to enable the delivery of products and services.
- Develop and deploy applications capable of meeting the anticipated load, performance, availability, security and resilience requirements.
- Develop software with a focus on unit testing and deployment process on all environments to minimise variation and ensure predictable high quality code and data.
- Provide support in identification and resolution of all incidents associated with the product.
- Keep up to date and have expertise on current tools, technologies and areas like cyber security and regulations pertaining to aspects like data privacy, consent, data residency

We are looking for you if:

- You are proficiency in Kotlin. Java would be an advantage
- You are expertise in Android SDK framework, Apps Life Cycle, Memory Management
- You are keen on design pattern, architecture, and coding styles.
- You work well with Reflection, Proguard, Unit Testing, UI Framework, Gradle is a plus
- You are proactive, a good team player, detail oriented, self-motivated
- You are passionate, geeky and love writing beautiful code
- Have at least 1-year experience in development using Kotlin/ Java

What we offer:

- 5-day working week
- Happy and harmonious working environment
- Competitive remuneration
- Medical Allowance
- Birthday Leave
- Valuable working experience
- Internal training support
- Year-end Performance Bonus

We offer attractive remuneration packages and excellent career development opportunities to the right candidate.

Final and Most Important Requirement
"Enjoy What You Do!!"

Candidates not contacted within 4 weeks may consider their application for this role unsuccessful. Unless advised otherwise, unsuccessful candidates will be kept on file for future job opportunities. Personal data

3. Web Developer

You will do the following in this job:

- Developer is responsible for developing the most appropriate and implement Technology solutions with software development in line with the solution design, to meet customer needs, ensuring continuous improvement.
- This role will carry out some or all of the following activities:
- Execution :
    - o Engineer software to fulfil functional and non-functional requirements as a key objective.
    - o Work within a feature team to engineer software, scripts and tools to enable the delivery of products and services.
    - o Develop and deploy applications capable of meeting the anticipated load, performance, availability, security and resilience requirements.
    - o Develop software with a focus on unit testing and deployment process on all environments to minimise variation and ensure predictable high quality code and data.
    - o Debug the application and provide prototype when necessary
    - o Provide support in identification and resolution of all incidents associated with the product.
- Learning :
    - o Keep up to date and have expertise on current tools, technologies and areas like cyber security and regulations pertaining to aspects like data privacy, consent, data residency

We are looking for you if:
- Good skill sets on HTML5, JS, CSS3
- Experience in using JS framework
- Fundamental knowledge of NodeJS
- Fundamental knowledge of REST API, Database
- Coding knowledge on Angular / React / Vue is a plus
- Interest in new technology
- 1+ year experience in web development

What we offer:

- 5-day working week
- Happy and harmonious working environment
- Competitive remuneration
- Medical Allowance
- Birthday Leave
- Valuable working experience
- Internal training support
- Year-end Performance Bonus

We offer attractive remuneration packages and excellent career development opportunities to the right candidate.

Final and Most Important Requirement

"Enjoy What You Do!!"

4. Project Executive

What's the job?

Project Executive is a key member to deliver Projects (Web/Mobile/System) to our clients in effective manner. He/ She is responsible for monitoring, organising and coordinating project activities and ensuring projects are completed on time and on budget.

The jobholder will perform:
- Work with Business team as a task force to manage full set of project
- Monitors the progress of project deliveries
- Requirements gathering, analysis to meet clients' need in a responsive manner
- Coordinates with internal team (technical and design) for the project progression
- Support system rollout, deployment and on-going support

What talent we want:
- Degree holder preferable in Business/Marketing/Computer Science or related discipline
- Understand mobile and digital service operation
- Practical experience in mobile or advertising agency industry will be preferred.
- Work experience of assist in preparing user requirement specifications, test plan and test case would be an advantage
- Detail-minded, good coordination and communication skills
- A good team player who is mature and can work independently

What we offer:

- 5-day working week
- Happy and harmonious working environment
- Competitive remuneration
- Medical Allowance
- Birthday Leave
- Valuable working experience
- Internal training support
- Year-end Performance Bonus

We offer attractive remuneration packages and excellent career development opportunities to the right candidate.

Final and Most Important Requirement

"Enjoy What You Do!!"

Candidates not contacted within 4 weeks may consider their application for this role unsuccessful. Unless advised otherwise, unsuccessful candidates will be kept on file for future job opportunities. Personal data collected will be used for recruitment related purposes only and all personal data of applicants will be kept in strict accordance to the Personal Data Privacy Ordinance.

5. UI/UX Designer

Your role will include the following duties:

- Working closely with business stakeholders, product owners and business analysts to translate user stories/business requirements into digital experiences.
- Being responsible for providing high quality deliverables such as user journeys, user flows, wireframes, UI mock-ups and prototypes for digital platforms and products.
- Developing pixel-perfect UI and ensuring design consistency between digital platforms.
- Collaborating closely with agile delivery teams, business analysts, developers, quality assurance analysts, product owners and other designers.
- Identifying technical issues and providing effective solutions.
- Presenting ideas to stakeholders.

We are very interested if..
- You have a Diploma or above in Interactive / Multimedia / Visual Design or related disciplines.
- You have a minimum of 1 year of experience in UI/UX design, interaction design or equivalent.
- You possess a well-established knowledge of user-centered design (UCD), design language systems, visual design principles and interaction design.
- You possess good presentation skills.
- You can communicate well in English and Cantonese.
- You are proficient with design tools such as Sketch/Figma, InVision, Zeplin, Adobe Creative Suite.
- You are willing to learn and explore new design trends, technologies and tools.
- You are a good team player, self-motivated, open-minded and detailed oriented
- You have a design portfolio with proven work.

What we offer:

- 5-day working week
- Happy and harmonious working environment
- Competitive remuneration
- Medical Allowance
- Birthday Leave
- Valuable working experience
- Internal training support
- Year-end Performance Bonus

We offer attractive remuneration packages and excellent career development opportunities to the right candidate.

Final and Most Important Requirement

"Enjoy What You Do!!"

Candidates not contacted within 4 weeks may consider their application for this role unsuccessful. Unless advised otherwise, unsuccessful candidates will be kept on file for future job opportunities. Personal data collected will be used for recruitment related purposes only and all personal data of applicants will be kept in strict accordance to the Personal Data Privacy Ordinance.

Application Link:

https://forms.gle/57Gg9mcrwKDWaEb76