Dear HKMU Service Alliance members,

Positive health behaviors and lifestyle choices are essential to support physical and mental wellness and academic success. Student Affairs Office (SAO) cares about your wellbeing and is committed to the continual improvement upon health and wellness in HKMU. In collaboration with NGO partners, we are going to share 2 external service-learning opportunities and updates of SAO summer placement programme with you.

News & Upcoming Events

Baptist Oi Kwan Social Service – Stand By U

【External Activity】Stand By U service is dedicated to support children aged 6-12 with parents who are in recovery from mental illness. Baptist Oi Kwan Social Service is now recruiting volunteers to join this project in the academic year 2022/23.

HKMU Summer Placement Programme at NGO 2022

【School Activity】 Want to have a fruitful summer vacation? Here is a chance for you! SAO is going to organize the “Summer Placement Programme at NGO 2022” , which aims to provide internship opportunities for students who aspire to develop a career in the social service industry. In this programme, students could not only gain hands-on experience in supporting and delivering social services to the community, but also acquire teamwork and communication skills for the workplace. Please stay tuned and more information about the programme will be released in May.
