

Philippe
BERA

Chief Executive Officer, Omtis Group of Companies

Mr. Philippe Bera was born and raised in Hong Kong. He started his career at Rothschild Wealth Management in Zurich and London, and was repatriated to Hong Kong shortly after to build and grow their business in the region. After nine years with Rothschild Wealth Management, he took the decision to exit the corporate world in late 2012 and take on responsibilities with his family business. He remained a Board member of Rothschild Wealth Management Hong Kong Limited for a number of years thereafter.

His family business was founded in 1919, and became the leading distributor of Swiss luxury goods in North Asia. The business moved its headquarters to Hong Kong just before the Cultural Revolution to continue its trading operations throughout Greater China.

Over the years the business has diversified into other interests including Fine Wine trade which is one of the group's core operating activities. Omtis Fine Wines boasts a reputed track record, spanning three decades, in the distribution of wine. The wine division makes sizeable investments in fine wine and distributes them throughout Asia from storage facilities in both Hong Kong and Bordeaux to HORECA and Private Clients. Mr. Bera manages the wine portfolio as well as the group business alongside his father who is the Chairman.

Outside of his professional responsibilities, Mr. Bera is an active participant in charitable giving and leadership. His family foundation has been an avid supporter of various local charities in Hong Kong, with a focus on education and health. Mr. Bera holds a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration with a focus on Finance, from the University of Bath, in England.

Clémence Bideau – Omtis Fine Wines Sales Manager

Miss Clémence Bideau was born and raised in France - Brittany, within a family of F&B Business owners. Passionate about Asia and Wine for many years, she has for more than 10 years dedicated herself to evolve in these two environments, by studying in Asia and working for various wine producers and distributors.

After a master's degree in Europe – Asia Business Management, several exchange students' programs in China and in Taiwan, she decided to specialise herself in Wine Business by doing a MS in Wine & Spirits International Business at Burgundy Business School.

Clémence arrived in Hong Kong in 2016 for her first job as Asia Export Manager for an Alsace winery. She then continued a carrier for a Bordeaux Grands Crus Classés Négociants, overseeing South-East Asia export markets. Both these positions allowed her to travel frequently to meet her clients, organising tasting and wines dinners with some of the most Prestigious Chateaux and wine producers. After these great experiences for French companies, she has for a few months, joined Omtis Fine Wines Trade and Export teams.
