Kelly Tsoi and Ginny Leung, graduates of the 2024 Higher Diploma in Pet Care and Animal Assisted Therapy, were among the first cohort of students to receive the City & Guilds Assured certificates. This esteemed recognition signifies that our programme aligns with the global Assured Benchmark Standards, recognising excellence in skills development and underscoring our School's commitment to delivering quality education. During her studies, Kelly's project proposal, "Fear Free Pet Service," was selected as one of the finalists at MetroChallenge 2024 organised by the Student Affairs Office at Hong Kong Metropolitan University, and was awarded an Implementation Fund of HK$100,000 on 18 July 2024. Kelly is now working on developing her start-up, which integrates psychology and pet care to enhance pet welfare in grooming services. Meanwhile, Ginny is currently employed as an Assistant Education Officer at a local non-profit veterinary organisation, where she plays a role in promoting and implementing animal welfare education initiatives.

由浸信會愛羣社會服務處合作推動，並獲新生精神康復會及惜食堂支持的精神健康推廣活動《大專·好精神》已於本校圓滿舉行。活動設有70個由學生設置的攤位。此計劃為逾540多名心理學高級文憑及醫療護理高級文憑課程的學生提供實證為本的培訓，提升學生的精神健康素養和助人技巧，並促進以尊重、同理心及同儕支持為基礎的正向學習環境。

In collaboration with Baptist Oi Kwan Social Service, and supported by New Life Psychiatric Rehabilitation Association and Food Angel, the peer-led mental health promotion campaign "Tertiary Thrive" was successfully held across the two campuses, featuring 70 student-led booths. The campaign empowered over 540 students from the Higher Diploma in Psychology and Higher Diploma in Health Care programmes through evidence-based training. It enhanced students' mental health literacy and helping skills, fostering a positive learning environment grounded in respect, empathy, and peer support.

國際老年大學協會亞洲國際會議 2025 AIUTA Asia International Conference 2025

The AIUTA Asia International Conference 2025 was successfully held on April 1 at Hong Kong Metropolitan University's Kwai Hing Campus. This highly anticipated event marked the first time the conference took place in Hong Kong. The conference featured esteemed speakers from 19 countries and regions, who shared their insights and perspectives on the theme of "Lifelong Learning for Older Adults in the Digital Age". Over 100 overseas participants joined the event, making it a truly international gathering!

The event was preceded by a special pre-conference gathering, supported by the Indonesian Consulate General in Hong Kong, with Ms. Satwant Khanalia (Consul General of India to Hong Kong) serving as Guest of Honour. As part of the programme, participants visited the Smart Ageing Hub at The Hong Kong Polytechnic University and explored community learning centers for older adults in Hong Kong. These visits provided an excellent opportunity to showcase Hong Kong's innovative approaches to lifelong learning and active ageing.
